

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT.—The Supreme Judicial Court for Sagadahoc County commenced its session in this city, on Tuesday morning, Judge Tenney presiding. The following jurors were called, impaneled and sworn—

Grand Jurors.—William H. Sturdivant, Foreman; Richmond; Humphreys; Adams; West Bath; Abner; Woolwich; Samuel Thompson; Topham; David Merryman; Richmond; Henry Lawrence; Arrowsic; William Owen; Charles Sewall; Silas S. Mitchell; Michael F. Gannett; Bath; George Curtis; William Lunt; Bowdoinham; Jonathan Gower; Orr Chase; Bowdoin; Allen; Henry G. Gorge; Hecchi; Harrington; William R. Lowell; Phippsburg; William Dennett; Topham.

First Jury.—John Hayden, Foreman; Thomas R. Bradford; John O. Hunt; Bath; Elijah Clifford; Walker Gatchell; Phippsburg; Samuel H. Fuller; Bowdoinham; Ephraim Carlton; Woolwich; John W. Fisher; Topham; Washington Hill; Georgetown; Thomas E. Hagan; Arrowsic; Thomas Higgins; West Bath.

Second Jury.—Levi P. Lemont, Foreman; James Rouse; William Stacey; James Wakefield; Thomas Jackson; Bath; Samuel Jack; Francis B. Rice; Richmond; Samuel Jameson; Given Jameson; Topham; James D. Oliver; Georgetown; Nathaniel Purinton; Bowdoinham; Judah Small; Bowdoin.

CONNECTION.—There was probably no election of Governor by the people of Connecticut on Monday. So far as heard from the vote for Governor stands—Dutton, Whit, 1981; Ingham, Dem., 5701; Minor, K. N., 5049.

Thus far we have returns of 26 Democrats to 21 Know Nothings and Whigs to the Legislature.

The First Congressional District is doubtful; in the second, Dean K. N. and Whig, is elected by a large majority. For Senators, Burr, Dem., probably elected, and in the third, Whiting, Dem. Hartford sends R. D. Hubbard, Dem., and E. D. Tiffany, K. N., to the Legislature. New Haven sends two democrats.

We learn that A. J. Potter and John Harris have been appointed deputies by Sheriff Merrow.

We learn that Neal Dow was elected mayor of Portland on Tuesday by about 40 majority.

Reformatory Fanaticism.—While the prohibition liquor bill was under consideration in the Massachusetts Legislature Monday, Mr. Munroe of Boston, moved to strike out the clause allowing the fruit of the vine for sacramental purposes.

In the course of the discussion, Mr. Prince expressed himself as having lost all respect for the communion as administered now with intoxicating drink, and inquired of the ministers concerned in its evil effects.

The year and says were then taken on Mr. Munroe's amendment, the others having been rejected, and it was adopted, says 133, nays 110.

Our own Legislature exhibited an extraordinary disposition in like manner to make unlawful the celebration of the communion or Lord's Supper with wine, as now done. The requisite majority were ready for the measure and would have enacted it had they not feared the minority might embarrass them by delays and parliamentary tactics so as to endanger the whole bill. The measure, however, yielded to the point for this year, and Christians of this State, are thus allowed for another year at least, in obedience to the command of their Savior, and in remembrance of him, to taste of the fruit of the vine, in the ordinance of the Lord's Supper without subjecting themselves and others to fine or imprisonment for violation of law. In some parts of the world, these proceedings would have excited astonishment, but at the present time, when entirely new principles of reform have been invented, by which men are to be made better by rule and law when reformers have been able to detect and remedy the abuses of the present, it is to be hoped that these dissatisfied reformers will not find themselves in the condition of those in olden times, who made clean the outside of the cup and platter, while the inside was full of bitterness and all manner of uncleanness.

Outside morality is of easy make, like the outward loquacity which depicts compulsion from their subjects, but inward devotion to principle and the sincere homage of the heart for virtue and the right, are of slower growth and of more difficult attainment. The history of the world thus far has taught that devotion to the surest means to present, instead of promoting, this inward growth of character.—Human nature may have changed, however, or modern reformers may have put their levers in a new place, to turn the screws of reform. We shall see. Time will test the experiment.—Port Argus.

More Mare's Nests!—It is understood that the next move of our new Mayor, (pronounced Marc), will be to institute suits against the individuals who held offices of Mayor, Aldermen and Councilmen last year, for the recovery back of the money appropriated by the city authorities towards defraying the expenses of the celebration, in this city, on the 4th of July last!

Our new Mayor has discovered that the city government of last year was illegally elected, and illegality organized; and therefore the vote on the appropriation in question was nugatory; and they are to be held personally liable for the money as officers de facto! Besides, it is contended that the 4th of July is not a legal bona fide American holiday, because the declaration of Independence was signed by the "bloody Irishman" and Catholic, CHARLES CARROLL, of Carrollton; which fact vitiated the whole proceeding, or in other words, renders the "declaration" null and void.

We expect here to find that our new Mayor whose legal lore exceeds that of my "Lord Bacon," has discovered the legal fallacy, either in the call or the proceedings of the convention which adopted our constitution; in consequence of which declaration the whole structure of government, including our admirable constitution, our beautiful reforms with a "Dirigo" inscribed thereon, will go by the board!

Beesich him not to go behind the Norman conquest!—Age.

DANGEROUS ROBBERY.—On Tuesday last an old Ben. Scribner, a young man who has been in the woods the past winter at work, and himself, as is supposed, in the store owned by A. B. Black & Co. of this village, while the clerks were at dinner, took from the safe about $200 in bank bills. Some time in the afternoon the money was missed, but to no avail was his way to Bangor. Thanks to the arrival of an officer who was ready when he arrived, the robber was taken, and the money was found upon him. The money was found upon him.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—Mr. H. W. Penno, whose house was robbed the other night, has suffered from a misfortune by one of his daughters having accidentally pushed a needle into one of her eyes. She was engaged in sewing, and was drawing the thread towards her, the needle caught in the eye, and was not extracted without passing entirely through the ball of the eye. The actual consequences cannot be predicted, but the young lady is under the best medical care.—Boston

GINGERBREAD LEGISLATION.—Recently the "Daughters of Freedom" presented to Governor Lincoln a large loaf of bread. It was no doubt a good specimen of the culinary art, and comforted the stomach of the recipient. But the hunger of office seekers is to be appeased by no such loaf. In the list of resolves of the legislature, there is one for the relief of David Dinwiddie, a poor fellow in the Norway Advertiser, there is also gingerbread in this case. It was on some public day, probably town meeting day, that David erected his shanty for the sale of pop berr, segars, gingerbread, &c. At night he found by his invoice that there were two sheets of gingerbread not represented by legal currency on hand.—Some hungry wretch, empty alike of stomach and of pocket, had feloniously appropriated the two sheets of gingerbread. With suspicions of David in the mind of David amounted to certain, David appealed to the magistrate, and to the magistrate to the grand jury, twice, without being able to get an indictment. Now, by this resolve the legislature pays David for his gingerbread and his trouble. We think that next fall, the people will resolve this law gingerbread legislation back to its original dough.—Belfast Journal.

THE AWARD OF THE CONTRACTS FOR THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE NEW CUSTOM HOUSE AT PORTLAND AND WALDOBORO, ME.—We understand that the Secretary of the Treasury has awarded the contract for building the new Custom House at Portland, Me., to Poland and Waldoboro, Me. The contract was awarded to the firm of Messrs. J. M. and J. S. Coburn, also of Boston. There were two letters of the Waldoboro Custom House. In the first, the bidders seemed bent on bidding at the appropriation rather than for the work. On being informed, however, that the contract would not be given out at an exorbitant rate, responsible bids were made to do the work at something more than one-third of the highest original bid.—Wash. Star, Wed.

SUICIDE.—Capt. Ginn, of Prospect, late master of the R. P. Patterson, committed suicide on board the R. P., at Palermo, (Sicily) a few days since, by shooting himself with a pistol. Capt. Ginn was a young man of good habits, and was highly respected by the community in which he lived. He leaves a family to perpetuate his virtues and morality, and to deeply mourn his sudden exit. No cause can be assigned other than an unprofitable voyage, for the act. The vessel experienced heavy weather on her passage, and arrived at Palermo almost a complete wreck. Capt. Ginn pointed to a high eminence, not far from the brig, and stated to Capt. Parker, with whom he was in conversation, that he was where he was to be buried, for he was about to die. Capt. Ginn made a reply that he was talking nonsense, and thought no more of it until he saw Capt. Ginn with the fatal pistol in his hand, with the muzzle at the cavity of his right ear; and before he could move or speak, Capt. Ginn fell lifeless to the cabin floor.—Progressive Age.

THE BRITISH RECRUITING DEPT.—We learn from the Philadelphia papers, that the eighteen persons who were arrested by the United States authorities for being engaged in the business of obtaining recruits for the British service, had been examined, and the principal, Henry H. Perkins, was assigned other than an unprofitable voyage, for the act. The vessel experienced heavy weather on her passage, and arrived at Palermo almost a complete wreck. Capt. Ginn pointed to a high eminence, not far from the brig, and stated to Capt. Parker, with whom he was in conversation, that he was where he was to be buried, for he was about to die. Capt. Ginn made a reply that he was talking nonsense, and thought no more of it until he saw Capt. Ginn with the fatal pistol in his hand, with the muzzle at the cavity of his right ear; and before he could move or speak, Capt. Ginn fell lifeless to the cabin floor.—Progressive Age.
